hydro drugs pass by without any scrutiny

Gaur was being paid ₹1 lakh for every 1 kg drug passed, say sources

Patel, 37 and Binkulsumar Patel, 38 During a raid on April 14, ANU inspector Sandeep Nigade nabbed Gaware and Olg with List ligo fraditional, ganja as well as 17.00 grams of hydro ganja from Nerul. During their interrugation, we found that the drugs were being imported from the US and Thalland's additional commissioners of police and Thalland's Salore of the network, and Thalland's Salore of the network at Traves of the network at the policy has found that Bangare, a Senwode rose the chain of accused. The police has found that Bangare, a Senwode resident who also happers to be two-times national player of hockey, ordered for the drug consignments from abroad, apparently Chichikur brothers, used to send the contraband via air courier. The courier first reaches Indian Postal that dispatches it to the respective zonal custom office as per the address.

The ones meant for Maharashtra are sent to the western zone, which was headed by Gaur.' said Kale. Gaur was allegeld provided the consignment numbers beforehand and in this manner, he deared the drug parcel without serutiny, he added.

added.

The couriers used to be on fake names and KK, a Kharghar resident, used to make fake Aadhaar cards using his photo and pose as the receiver. He would then pick the courier and hand it over to Bangare. The latter made cash payments to both the Patels, who operated as Angadia. The angadia used to accept the payment and transfer LSDT to US or Thailand from where the courier was sent; the officer added. Gaware, Olgi and Lambe, all three from Nerul, operated as peddlers. Constables Bhalerao and Phulkar are said to have been in constant touch with KK. As per the police sources, the dun was tasked with protecting the carrel from any cases and arrests. Both of the carrel from any cases and arrests. Joined the chain much latter, they have till now been jaid fall his for every 1 kg drug passed by him. There are nore accused wanted and was resill investigating to understand the chain of distribution of the drugs; assistant commissioner of police Blausasheb Dhote said.

Project revival plan gives hope to home buyers in Panvel

FP.J News Service

The litigation-ridden project of Supreme Construction Developers in Taloja, Panvel – which has 12 towers compris-ing 1.700 flats – is likely to be revived after remaining at standstill for the past four years.

MahaRERA, in its recen manaterica, in its recent order, has appointed Advocate Shirish Deshpande, chairman of Mumbai Grahak Panchayat (MGP), and Dr Niranjan Hiranandani, NAREDCO president, as special conciliators to look into multiple litigations

According to a press note issued by Anita Khanolkar, MGP secretary, a similar situation arose with the DSK Sadaphuli housing project in Talegaon, Pune, which had come to a standstill, At that time, MahaRERA had appointed Advocate Deshpande Advocate Deshpande and Dr Hirnanadnai as special conciliators. The duo had submitted a blueprint to MahaRERA, following which the buyers finally received possession of their homes. The duos experience will prove valuable in steering the Taloig project towards completion, Khanolkar added.

Mira-Bhayandar civic body contractors risking workers' lives

The Mira-Bhayandar civic book does not practise what it preaches. After warning strict action against housing societies, commercial and educational complexes found pressing humans to conduct dangerous labour work, the municipality's own contractors are flouting norms. Roped in for desitting, several workers were seen entering manholes sans protective gears.

NGO seeks action against actress for 'consuming protected wildlife' chief conservator of forests and the divisional forest officer, raising concerns over an interview given by 'Lanpatan Ladies' actress Chibaya Kadam. In the interview, she allegedly admitted to consuming meat from protected wildlife species. The NGO has urged forest authorities to take action against the actress and others involved in the alleged poaching and consumption of wildlife for meat. The development was confirmed by Roshan Rathod, divisional forest officer (Vigilance). We have received the complaint. It has been for-
