DGCA sets Ebola SOPs for airlines

OUTBREAK SCARE

FPJ News Service MUMBAI

India's aviation regulator, the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), has issued a strict set of standard operating procedures (SOPs) for airlines after the World Health Organisation (WHO) declared the Ebola virus disease outbreak as a public health emergency of international concern.

The new protocols aim to establish a robust line of defence at international gateways to mitigate the risk of the highly contagious virus breaching Indian borders.

Under the newly released guidelines, airlines operating direct or connecting flights from Uganda and the Congo have to ensure mandatory filing and collection of physical or digital self-declaration forms from all passengers before they disembark. Airlines will also have to broadcast targeted health announcements during flights to educate passengers on the virus's early warning signs and encourage self-reporting before reaching the terminal.

Passengers are urged to immediately report to cabin crew or the authorities if they experience symptoms like high fever and weakness, muscle pain and severe headaches, sore throat, vomiting and diarrhoea or unexplained bleeding or bruising. If any traveller develops these symptoms within 21 days of arriving in India, they must immediately seek medical isolation and notify the relevant airport health office.

For mid-air contingencies where a passenger exhibits symptoms consistent with Ebola, the DGCA has laid down a strict isolation blueprint, wherein the suspected case will have to be immediately moved to the rear of the aircraft and three front rows and all adjacent seats should be kept vacant if possible. The airlines have also been instructed to audit and top up their onboard medical inventories.

SC rejects plea against cabinet rank to MLAs, MLCs in K'taka

PTI NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Tuesday refused to entertain a plea challenging the Karnataka government's decision to grant cabinet rank to 42 legislators, including MLAs and MLCs as heads of various boards and corporations.

A bench of Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi asked the petitioner to file a review petition before the high court.

"We dispose of this petition with the liberty to the petitioner to file a review petition before the high court," the bench said.

The top court was hearing an appeal filed by Suri Payala, who works with the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board, challenging the March 4 order of the Karnataka High Court which dismissed his plea.

The plea argued that bestowing cabinet status on these legislators results in financial benefits such as higher salaries, official vehicles, drivers, fuel allowances, and so on.

Delhi HC seeks reply on Priya Kapur's EPF plea

FPJ News Service NEW DELHI

The Delhi High Court on May 26 issued notice on Priya Kapur's plea seeking clarification of certain paragraphs of a coordinate bench's April 30 interim order restraining her from dissipating the assets of her late husband, industrialist Sunjay Kapur, reports Live Law.

The application has been filed in a pending suit moved by actress Karisma Kapoor's children, Samaira Kapur and her brother, seeking a share in their late father's personal assets.

The coordinate bench had observed that suspicious circumstances were raised by the plaintiffs and Rani Kapur, mother of Sunjay Kapur, regarding the alleged Will and that the onus to remove the said circumstances lies on Priya Kapur, which is a matter of trial.

Priya Kapur has sought modification of clause (b) and clause (d) of paragraph 79 of the coordinate bench order to permit withdrawals from Sunjay Kapur's Employees' Provident Fund strictly for payment of the children's education expenses and school fees.

The coordinate bench had said: "Looking at the nature of the reliefs claimed in the application, list the same before the Roster Bench on May 26, 2026, subject to orders of Hon'ble Judge-in-Charge (Original Side)."

When the matter came up for hearing on Tuesday, Justice Aneesh Jhingam issued notice to the respondents while noting that the issue of maintainability of the application before another court remains open. The matter is listed for hearing in July.

Kapur asked to make withdrawals from Sunjay Kapur's funds to pay the children's education expenses

In its interim order passed last month, the coordinate bench said the suspicious circumstances raised by the plaintiffs and Rani Kapur fell under three heads: unnatural disposition, circumstances at the pre-execution and execution stage of the alleged Will, and the chain of custody of the original Will.

House panel to review CBSE marking system

Agencies NEW DELHI

A parliamentary panel has summoned officials of the Union Education Ministry and the CBSE on June 2 to review the use of the On-Screen Marking (OSM) system and issues faced by students in the class 12 post-result process, according to a Rajya Sabha Secretariat notice.

The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Education, Women, Children, Youth and Sports will also discuss the implementation of the three-language formula in classes 9 and 10, the notice issued on Monday said.

The committee, headed by Congress leader Digvijaya Singh, has summoned School Education Secretary Sanjay Kumar and Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE)

Chairman Rahul Singh for a meeting on June 2.

The agenda of the meeting includes a review of the "use of On-Screen Marking (OSM) in Grade 12 Exams and issues faced by students consequently".

After CBSE student Vedant Srivastava's post about his answer sheet mix-up garnered online attention, his brother Siddhant Srivastava on Tuesday said the board has reached out to the family and sent the correct answer sheet.

Siddhant said his brother's marks have been increased, but they will apply for revaluation as there are some irregularities.

"The problem was that his answer sheet was exchanged with someone else's, and the marks we received were based on someone else's answer sheet."

SC upholds 1983 murder case convictions, cites 'brutality'

PTI NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Tuesday upheld several convictions in a case of murder of five people in Bihar in 1983, saying the brutality of the incident "shocks the judicial conscience." A bench of Justices Sanjay Karol and N Kottiswar Singh said the trial court as well as the Patna High Court rightly observed that the case leaves no room for "misplaced sympathy or leniency." The top court delivered its verdict on the appeals filed by the convicts challenging an August 2017 judgement of the Patna High Court.

The high court had upheld the conviction and life sentence awarded by the trial court to these convicts.

The apex court noted that the incident took place in March 1983 in a village in Muzaffarpur district, where a mob of at least 58 persons set the house of Chandra Shekhar Choudhary on fire, followed by the brutal killing of five persons and wounding of several others.

It was the day of Holi when the mob armed with deadly weapons surrounded Choudhary's house.

"The high court has meticulously summarised the role of each accused person and identified those who ignited the straw, those who set the house on fire, those who chased the fleeing victims and those who inflicted fatal blows upon the deceased persons," the bench said.

It said the findings recorded by the high court clearly established that the accused constituted an unlawful assembly, were armed with deadly weapons and acted in furtherance of their common object of setting the house ablaze and causing the death of the members of Choudhary's family.

Prepare Banke Bihari revamp plan, UP told

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Tuesday directed the Uttar Pradesh government to prepare a comprehensive development plan including widening of roads and other facilities for senior citizens, women, children and ailing devotees of Thakur Shree Bankey Bihari Ji Maharaj temple in Vrindavan.

A bench comprising Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi took note of the plea that the deity at the temple is a "living child" and passed a significant interim order to balance centuries-old traditions with modern administrative needs.

SC to pass judgment on SIR today

FPJ News Service NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court will pronounce judgment on May 27 on petitions challenging the legality of the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls conducted by the Election Commission of India (ECI), reports Live Law.

A bench of Chief Justice Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi will decide whether the ECI has powers under Article 326, the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and related rules.

The court had allowed the revision process to continue while reserving judgment on Jan 29. The SIR has been completed in Bihar, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Puducherry and West Bengal, and continues in several other states.

Last year, the Supreme Court directed ECI to accept Aadhaar card as a "12th document".

PTI NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Tuesday sought response from the Centre on a plea regarding staff and member vacancies across the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal and Haroa also took part in the programme and asked the high courts to send judicial officers on deputation to meet the requirements.

A bench of Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi issued notice to the Centre and sought assistance from Attorney General R Venkataramani on the issue. WB to separate Ayush from its health dept

Aritra Singh KOLKATA

Chief Minister Suwendu Adhikari on Tuesday held an administrative meeting where Trinamool Congress (TMC) MLAs from Deganga, Swarnpnagar and Haroa also took part in the programme and asked the high courts to send judicial officers on deputation to meet the requirements.

After the administrative meeting, Adhikari mentioned that the state government would also establish a separate AYUSH department, removing it from the purview of the health department.

"We will make the Ayush department separate and will keep a separate minister. No liquor shops would not be permitted within a one-kilometre radius of schools, colleges and temples. Annapurna Yojna forms will be given from Wednesday and MLAs will assist people to fill their forms. The faster we get them we will start giving the benefits," said Adhikari.

The Chief Minister also mentioned that the subsidised canteens which are around 400 across Bengal fish-rice meals would be provided for Rs 5 for twice a week.

Adhikari also announced that this time even Bengal will participate on World Yoga Day.

Notably, last week, the Chief Minister directed all district magistrates to set up 'holding centres' for apprehended illegal immigrants before their deportation.

This Jamtara farmer's number proves lucky

IANS RANCHI

In a surprising tale of fate turning into fortune, Damodar Singh, a Jamtara farmer, saw his fortunes touch the sky months after the installation of solar pumps at his farms under the PM-KUSUM scheme.

As he moved away from conventional fuel and switched to solar pumps, his income jumped sharply, and this also freed him from the burden of rising diesel prices and erratic power supply. After installing solar pumps under the PM-KUSUM scheme, he no longer faces the stress of diesel expenses or inflated electricity bills.

Earlier, irrigation through diesel pumps cost him around 8,000 to 10,000 rupees per month, but now this costs nothing. He says that after installing the solar pump, he now harvests three crops a year and has also started vegetable cultivation alongside paddy.

Damodar explains that after installing solar pumps in his field, he can now cultivate three crops a year. Alongside paddy, he has also started farming vegetables; previously, he was entirely dependent on rainfall. Now, water is available whenever he needs it, simultaneously, his operational costs have dropped to zero while his income has increased.

By providing irrigation water to the fields of fellow farmers, he claims to be generating a net annual income of up to ?1.5 lakhs, a windfall gain that has enabled him to build his own home and also provide his children with an education in good schools.

Explaining the benefits of the PM-KUSUM scheme, he said, "Under the Kusum Scheme, PM Modi provided us with a solar pump. We use it for farming and received it with subsidy support."
